A PRAYER FOR OUR COMMUNITY DURING THE MICA CRISIS

Loving God, we pray for everyone affected by the Mica Crisis. You see our crumbling homes and buildings. You hear our cries for help. You have compassion on everyone you have created.

God of justice, you call us to act justly, to love mercy and to walk humbly. As our community journeys through this dark valley, walk with us, comfort and strengthen us. You are our help in times of trouble; protect us and keep us safe.

Lord Jesus, you entered our world of suffering and carried our sorrows; you are merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in love. In the midst of frustration, anger, uncertainty, fear and distress, help us to walk together, to love and care for one another, leaving no one behind. Help us to avoid hostility, rebuild trust and restore relationships.

Holy Spirit, in darkness and despair, you are our light; darkness cannot overpower you. Shine your light of truth and bring integrity and fairness into our community. We pray for those in positions of authority that they may fulfil their responsibility to protect the wellbeing of all. We pray for just and fair solutions for the restoration, rebuilding and flourishing of every person in our community.

You promise a peace that passes understanding. Bring peace to troubled hearts; bring calm to anxious minds. You are our hope! Amen

Post Office, Bridgend; Post Office, Speenogue; Callaghan's Filling Station, Burt Tourish's Spar Shop, Burnfoot; Bradley's Filling Station, Fahan

Please help the parish at this time by putting your weekly collection envelopes and donations in the boxes provided. Please ask the staff for assistance.

You are also welcome to leave your envelopes/donations into the Parish Office at Fahan Parochial House 10.00am-12.30pm Mon-Thurs.

The parish really needs your financial support at this time.

We are very thankful to the various premises for accommodating us in this way at this time. Father Bradley

READINGS FOR FEAST OF CHRIST THE KING

First Reading. We step out of time and into eternity in today's liturgy. People of Faith and Love long to see what is here spoken of, the installation of Christ victorious for eternity. And 'Holiness is fitting to his (your) house, O Lord, until the end of time.' Our joy will be unqualified and complete.

Second Reading. It is hard to imagine everyone mourning over Him whom they (we) pierced. One explanation is that 'on the last day' both the evil of mankind and the full beauty of what God planned from all eternity, put together and achieved in Christ, will be made clear.

Gospel. Perhaps nowhere in the Gospel account does Jesus' divine kingship shine out through his humanity so clearly and strongly as it does in this exchange with Pilate. Jesus's kingdom is 'in' this world but not 'of' it. St Augustine asks, 'What is his kingdom but (except) those who believe in him?' Jesus came to witness to the truth; and all who on the side of truth listen to my voice.' St Augustine again: 'But whoever is born again of Christ has become a kingdom that is no longer of this world. For God has delivered us from the power of darkness, and translated us into the kingdom of the son of his Love. (Col 1:3)'
